Attention: Mr. William Casey
Director

Dear Mr. Casey:

We're DACTEK. We're in the fingerprinting and identification business. We've been in business for over a decade; we're accepted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and endorsed by the Fraternal Order of Police.

We have an idea to share with you. We've helped fingerprint over two million children around America with our inkless kit. We urge you to use our kit as part of the Agency family protection program. Our kit is effective for standard forensic science methodology, and for printing Agency employees, family members, and children.

Please seriously evaluate our DACTEK kit. We understand Agency needs.

Very truly yours,

DACTEK INTERNATIONAL, INC.

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

JEFFREY T. BERGNER, STAFF DIRECTOR
GERYLD B. CHRISTIANSON, MINORITY STAFF DIRECTOR

June 5, 1985

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

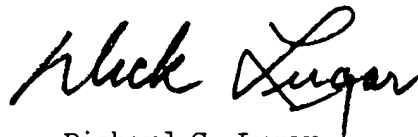

The Foreign Relations Committee has received a request from a researcher for access to the transcript of a Top Secret briefing on September 5, 1979 by Secretary of State Vance concerning the presence of a Soviet combat brigade in Cuba.

The Department of State has reviewed the transcript and in their reply has recommended that certain pages be referred to the Central Intelligence Agency. A portion of their letter reads as follows:

The Department of State has no objection to release of page 45, lines 3-25 and page 46, lines 1-3. However, since the subject was intelligence capabilities and collection, and specifically testimony by the former Director of Central Intelligence, we suggest that the Committee consult the Central Intelligence Agency as to releasability of this exchange.

I would appreciate your advising me if the CIA has any objection to the release of this material.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Lugar
Chairman
